Homeschool Enrichment Program

Calling all Homeschool Families! Come join us for an enrichment program focused on capillary action. Participants will experiment with food coloring and flowers to see this scientific concept at work! Registration is requested as supplies are limited. (Please register on our website.) This month's project may be completed as a family vs. an individual student. Please note that this project is not suitable for children under 5 without significant adult assistance.

Tuesday, September 3 at 9 AM at the Pendleton County Extension Office

Crochet Corner

Join Billie Conrad as she shares tip, tricks, and techniques for crocheting.
We look forward to seeing you there!
Date: Tuesday, September 10 and September 24

Time: 10:30 AM

*Additional afternoon class at 4:30 PM on September 12!

Crafternoon

Join us for an afternoon of guided crafting! Pre-chosen crafts will be provided to adults. September's craft is a DIY Fall Scarecrow Figurine. Children are welcome, as long as they can be supervised by an adult according to Library policy. (Please note: adult crafts frequently contain small parts that may be choking hazards for young children and hot glue guns are frequently in use.) Adult crafts will not be provided to children, although simple activities will be made available.
*Please register for this program on our website.
Tuesday, September 10 at 1:00 PM in the Community Room

Off the Bus

Middle school students (homeschoolers count!) between the ages of 10 and 14, come out of your bedrooms for a couple of hours! Hang out at the library (supervised--sorry!) with soon-to-be-friends. Interact as much or as little as you choose with our new tween group and if you're feeling it that day, try something new! Our first hang out optional activity will be Try the World--where we try some weird, maybe delicious, maybe not, international foods. Please register for this program on our website.

Thursday, September 19 at 3:30 PM in the Library Teen Area

Genealogy Roundtable

Genealogy Roundtable is a time for discussion between genealogists, family historians, or history lovers. We will share ideas and new discoveries, learn how to deal with research problems, and explore other interests related to genealogy. There will be coffee and tea available. Please feel free to bring your own cup or get a cup from the front desk. We look forward to you joining us as we discover more about genealogy!
*Registration is requested but not required. Please visit our website for more information.

Reading Dragons

September 2024 Release

Our Dragon, Unicorn, and Griffin Reading buddies brought along Jackalope, Kracken and Sphynx friends to join us this year! Earn your Reading Dragon cards by tracking your reading in 30 minute time slots. ANY reading counts so don't forget to track the time you read for your school assignments! Collect your favorite new characters to build your card collection. This month we are celebrating the success of the USA teams in the 2024 Summer Olympics with Olympia the Sphynx and you can collect some "tasty treat" themed friends with our Dragon Fruit, Chocolate, and Strawberry Dragons, and Macaron the Unicorn! Come look at all the Reading Dragons and Friends Cards and try something new at the Library this month!
